

Privacy Policy

July 2005

Dear Client and/or Customer:

PROMAX Management, Inc., is committed to your financial well being and will protect the privacy and security of the information you provide us at the time of initial contracting process and thereafter. We honor your trust in providing us with your personal and financial information by handling your information cautiously and sensibly.

PROMAX Management, Inc., will not sell or trade any information to third parties. We do not disclose any non-public, personal information about our current and former clients and customers to anyone, except as required by law such as in response to a subpoena and to prevent fraud or to comply with a legally permitted inquiry by a government agency or regulator.

PROMAX Management, Inc., reserves the right to make changes to our privacy policy at any time when circumstances such as changes in law and regulations require it.
